

LITIGATION

Our most diverse and trial-ready team of litigators are always here to help our clients to meet their business and litigation needs.

Clients increasingly choose us to handle their litigation because:

- A distinguished background in national trials and litigation in Vietnamese courts;
- Record of success in handling a broad range of matters, from high-risk, high-reward litigation to high-profile class actions, and other complex litigation;
- Proven ability to handle major class actions and other complex litigation;
- Legal consultants who are leaders in their profession, many having joined the firm after distinguished careers in juridical governmental bodies; and
- Our trial legal experts, staff and all other resources will be utilized to guard client short-term and long-term interests inside and outside of the courtroom.

Protecting Your Interests

Our legal strategies are designed to ensure your daily business operations are smooth and uninterrupted, as well as to protect client long-term financial plans. We offer alternative fee structures and cost-efficient methods to protect you from runaway costs while ensuring a consistent quality with all our services.

Commercial Litigation

Clients choose us because of our extensive trial experience, depth of industry knowledge, broad geographical reach, and proven track record of success. The below distinguishing factors have set us as one of the first choices of clients in Vietnam:

- We are trial legal experts, with a proven success record;
- We know your industry;
- We have broad geographical reach and resources; and
- We often win difficult complex cases.

Construction litigation

We have counselled and advised clients on many complex construction projects, contracts, and construction claims throughout Vietnam, including a wide array of large, complicated, high-profile public and private projects, as well as many major industrial, commercial, and residential projects.
